Situation:

For units listed in Table 1, the current programming and readback accuracy may marginally out of specification.

Solution/Action:

Kindly contact Keysight Technologies Customer Contact Center at www.keysight.com/find/contactus for sending the affected unit back to service center.

Service center to perform performance verification on current programming and readback accuracy.

If performance verification PASSES

- No action needed

If performance verification FAILS

- Calibrate (adjustment) the unit
