Situation:

For the Serial Number listed in Table 1, unit may suddenly power off when operating and no longer can be powered on again when user switches on from the front panel.

Solution/Action:

Kindly contact Keysight Technologies Customer Contact Center at www.keysight.com/find/contactus for sending the affected unit back to service center for inspection and repair.

Service center to perform inspection and confirm if the failure is on the backplane assembly.

This service note is only meant for backplane failure (5067-5091).
